   Colleen Vera addressed the board regarding the Texas Education Agency’s 2018 report concerning improper restraints of a CyFair ISD student who attended an HCDE school. She provided the board with printouts of the TEA report. She stated that HCDE was not reprimanded because HCDE is considered a contractor, but CyFair ISD was reprimanded instead. She pointed out that this was not the first issue of this nature but was one of the only ones to produce public documents proving abuse. She requested that now that there are two new board members and new officers, she challenged the board to address public concerns over the treatment of students in HCDE’s special schools. She asked that the board hire Disability Rights Texas to perform a complete evaluation of the HCDE special schools and issue a public report at a future board meeting. She requested that an item regarding this matter be placed on the next month’s agenda and discussed.

5. Reports and presentations:

   A. New Board Member Presentation - Eric Dick, Board President

   Board President Eric Dick made a presentation to the two new board members, Amy Hinojosa and Andrea Duhon.

   The Public Hearing portion of the meeting adjourned at 1:22 p.m.
Eric Dick called the regular meeting to back order at 1:22 p.m.

B. Annual Update from Center for Grants Development - Gayla Rawlinson, Director

C. Superintendent Monthly Report - James Colbert, Jr.

Superintendent Colbert stated that he would be traveling to Austin next week for the TASA Mid-Winter Conference. He explained that this is the biggest conference of the year for Texas administrators. He recognized that HCDE will have the honor to conduct a breakout session on Fortis Academy titled “Possible Cure for Drug-Related Offenses” during the conference. He predicted that attendees would be very receptive to alternative solutions other than punishing a child for an addiction. He noted that this would be HCDE’s third presentation for the year regarding Fortis Academy. He noted that the upcoming HCDE Early Childhood Winter Conference would be held on February 1, 2020 and recognized that this will be the 34th year; he encouraged the board to attend. He informed the board that last week HCDE had a surprise visit from TEA to look at HCDE’s ABS East and ABS West campuses. He stated that Dr. Mays gave a thorough presentation on how HCDE advocates for young people and explained the processes and systems in place to address this special population. Mr. Colbert explained that HCDE’s aspiration was to be an advocate and champion for students with special needs and pride is taken in the campuses and the principals and staff who work in them.

D. Report of the Board Feasibility Subcommittee - Don Sumners

No report.

E. Other reports from Board members concerning attendance or participation in a board or HCDE-related conference, event, activity, or committee; accolades for an HCDE staff member or other deserving person.

Eric Dick stated that he was recently able to speak with Judge Eric Andell and recognized him as one of the founders of HighPoint School. He stated that Judge Andell was proud of HCDE for HighPoint and encouraged HCDE to keep doing the good work.
